

ERRATA : Alveley Historical Society Transactions 1995.

|      |    |      |    |                         |
|------|----|------|----|-------------------------|
| Page | 47 | line | 4  | WEIR family             |
|      | 49 |      | 9  | CLARK, he was the baker |
|      |    |      | 19 | CLARK'S shop            |
|      |    |      | 20 | ALLUM Bridge            |
|      |    |      | 21 | Mr. CLARK               |
|      |    |      | 22 | CLARK'S shop            |
|      |    |      | 26 | CLARK'S                 |

note : Miss Lilian Knight came from Nantwich in Cheshire, never returned home and died in the Village at the Bungalow (erected for her ) in the Finger Lane, where a Narburgh now lives.

|      |    |      |    |  |
|------|----|------|----|--|
| Page | 49 | line | 30 | PHILIP eldest son of J.R.Clark was the Midnight Baker !!![ he died in 1991 at the age of 90 ]  |
|      | 51 |      | 1  | George Clark , brother of J.R.Clark had a stump of an ear.[ the story was that it was bitten off by a pig, but actuallyhe had a cancerous growth which was successfully removed in the 'twenties]  |
|      | 60 |      | 22 | Bobby CLARK[ note : the bombs were jettisoned by German planes havingmissed their target, which that night had been Wolverhampton.   |
|      | 66 |      |    | photo caption TILLY BURROW   |
|      | 67 |      | 20 | Tilly BURROW,actually Mathilda Burrow,but always called Burrows  |
|      | 74 |      | 23 | Mr. CLARK'S shop at Birdsgreen.  |
|      |    |      | 24 | The pea fields were the Dumbolds Farm, but in the Romsley Lanejust up from the Finger and owned by Tommy Davies.   |
|      | 76 |      |    | photo caption :Will. Massey [ W.G.Massey, always called Will, never Bill ]Nobby CLARKSIMPSON WilliamsonBUT, according to Alice Starbuck (nee Baldwin), a majority of these namesare probably wrong.Certainly the first couple are not Mr. & Mrs. W.G.Massey. |

Pages 18,20,22,24,28,30,34 Photographs taken by C.Whetton and D.Bannister